

Learning about newspaper articles & creating their own.

Inclusion is not simply about physical proximity. It is about intentionally planning for the success of all students.

A student with special needs, proudly playing the piano during our Christmas concert.

The idea of belonging shouldn't be considered a privilege available to only some students.

It should be considered a basic human right.

—Linda Mullen, Executive Director, The Sparkle Effect

Such expression of happiness shows that this student feels confident, accepted & accomplished regardless of all differences.

Child development is a long progress and it is important that those persons who are directly involved in a child's life will be conscious about what is normal and what is not in order to point out an issue and be able to work on it,

A holistic development approach is important in order to bring out the best in each child.

*Tell me & I forget,
Teach me & I may remember,
Involve me & I learn.*

Exploring science during an outing.

A student with special needs is being involved by his classmates to do crafts.

A student with special needs doing a mother's day card with the rest of his class.

INCLUSION IS NOT
TOLERANCE, IT IS UNQUESTIONED ACCEPTANCE.

Working as a team (including a student with special needs) during a sports day activity

1 student from Junior school & another from Senior school performing a dance. Both with a different nationality, a different background & different age, however, with 1 target in mind, that of;

Inclusion

Newark School
Malta

We may all be different fish
but at school we swim together!

- Different nationalities all come together for our Christmas concert.

"DIVERSITY is being invited to the party. INCLUSION is being asked to dance."
-Vernell Myers

"Strength lies in differences, not in Similarities." -Steven R. Covey.